2. After logging into BIIS using the credentials provided in the email, the students will be able to register for the courses in the April 2021 semester. This is available in the "Registration" menu in BIIS. After selecting the courses, the students will see the consolidated amount including admission fee and registration fee that they need to pay online to complete the admission into PG program and registration for the April 2021 semester.

3. There will be no option to pay the admission fee and registration fee offline in April 2021 semester. Only online payment through mobile banking or Sonali Bank Payment Gateway will be accepted. The details of the online registration fee payment procedure will be available in the BIIS account and PG admission website.

4. The adviser will not be able to forward the registration if the payment of the student is due.

5. This admission and registration are provisional. The admission will only be finalized after checking your original documents by your Department/ Institute. If you are absent during the checking of the original documents without prior approval from the concerned department/institute, or if any discrepancy is found in your original documents with those submitted or if your original documents do not satisfy the admission requirement, then your admission will be cancelled.
