Guideline for Thesis CSE 6000 Registration for April 2022 Semester

All Master's students who have registered for CSE 6000 in the April 2022 semester and do not have a thesis supervisor are instructed to do the following.

1. Please contact the prospective thesis supervisors. You can find the contact information of the prospective supervisor on the departmental website.
2. If a faculty member agrees to be your thesis supervisor, then please download and fill up the application form of thesis supervisor assignment and sign it. This form is also available at the department.
3. Please also take the signature of the proposed supervisor and submit the signed form at the department.
4. Please note that your registration will not be approved until the supervisor assignment is complete. If you have not registered for CSE 6000 for the April 2022 semester, you may disregard these steps.

Guideline for Change of Status

All PG students who want to change status from part time to full time or full time to part time, must submit an application addressed to the Head of the Department, sign the application and submit it at the department. You must mention your student ID in the application.

Please note that the status change may take a few days. Once changed, it will be reflected in your BIIS profile.
